± SAMPLE SECTION C Summary of Continuing Education Activities Form - FORMAL ACTIVITIES

This section is provided to assist you in completing Section C for your audit. Note that incomplete or incorrect entries will delay the audit review.

Applicant's Name: Jane Doe

Reminder: Minimum Formal & Expanded Hours for Renewal by Continuing Education = 75

Renewal of certification by continuing education requires that CDCESs meet eligibility requirements and complete 75 clock hours of continuing education (CE) in content areas applicable to diabetes during their applicable accrual cycle. If using Expanded Activities, a minimum of 45 of the 75 CE hours must be from Formal activities and the Formal Activities must be approved by a provider on the CBDCE List of Recognized Providers. No more than 30 clock hours from Expanded Activities can be claimed toward the total 75 CE hours requirement. If you are not using CE from the Expanded Activities, all 75 CE must be from the Formal Activities.

For these samples, Ms. Doe last renewed using the standard deadline of 9/15/2018 for renewal by continuing education. Therefore, for this renewal cycle, her accrual start date for continuing education hours is 9/16/2018. If she had been initially certified in 2018 or reinstated the credential in 2018 after expiring, her accrual start date would be 1/1/2019.

1. Presentations Entry now correctly listed on the Expanded Activities Form versus previously being listed on the Formal Activities Form (#6).	Event: Nursing Conference. Presenting topic: Motivational Interviewing Duration: 1 hour presentation, plus 30 minute Q & A.  Reminder: CDCESs can only claim CE hours for a specific presentation one time during the accrual cycle. If a CDCES gives the same presentation to another group, she cannot claim additional CE hours. Example of verification documentation would be a copy of the program identifying the CDCES as the primary presenter.	August 13, 2020 Entry now contains exact date.	Entry now reflects maximum of 10 CE hours allowed for one original presentation. CDCESs can claim 10 CE hours for each original presentation (maximum of 3 presentations or 30 CE hours if only this category of Expanded Activities is used.)
2. Publications Entry now correctly listed on the Expanded Activities Form versus previously being listed on the Formal Activities Form (# 7).	Title: Nutrition: Requirements for Gestational Diabetes. Published in Dietetics Today magazine/journal.  Reminder: CDCESs can claim time spent as primary author writing an article or book chapter for up to a maximum of 10 CE hours. CDCESs claim the CE hours in the accrual cycle in which the article/chapter is published. Peer review is required to claim hours.  Example of verification documentation is the cover page with author's name.	June 2019 Volume III	10 Entry now reflects maximum of 10 CE hours allowed for one article/chapter. <sup>**</sup>Noteworthy Information:

<sup>(3)</sup> To renew you need to earn a total of 75 CE hours during your accrual cycle. Accruing the maximum 30 CE hours under one of the Expanded Activities categories, CDCESs will still need to earn 45 CE hours under the Formal Activities category and the Formal Activities CE hours must meet all the identified requirements, e.g., approved or provided by an organization on the NBDE List of Recognized Providers.
